.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that for the reasons stated in the telegram dated 30.4.2004 and 4.5.2005 Court may be pleased to issue an Order, direction, or a Writ, more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Habeas Corpus directing the Respondents herein to produce the Petitioner's sister, Viz., Smt. Narmadamma, her daughter Smt. Shobha Rani (along with her infant daughter), Petitioner's son-in-law, Viz., G. Venugopal, and the sons of the Petitioner herein, Viz., Subrahmanayam and Ramasubbaiah, and Rajasekhar, the son of the Petitioner's sister, before this Hon'ble Court, who were illegally detained in Mahila Police Station, Ananthapur, and in Bathalapalli Police Station, Ananthapur, respectively, sine 10/12 days, and set them at liberty forthwith.

Counsel for the Petitioner: TELEGRAM

Counsel for the Respondents: THE ADVOCATE GENERAL

The Court made the following:

ORAL ORDER: (per VE.J.)

On a telegram being sent by one E.Savitramma, hereinafter referred to as the petitioner, the matter has been taken up as Writ Petition.

2. It is alleged by the petitioner that the respondents took the sister of the petitioner viz., Smt.Narmadamma, her daughter Smt.Shobha Rani with her infant daughter, her son-in-law G.Venugopal, her sons Subrahmanyam and Ramasubbaiah and her sister's son Rajasekhar into custody.

3. On instructions, the learned Advocate General stated that on suspicion in a murder case registered in crime No.36 of 2005 by Battlapally Police Station, Anantapur District, the alleged detenus were orally summoned to the Police Station and enquired them, and after satisfying that they are not involved in the said murder case, they were let off, but denied the allegation that they are in illegal confinement of the police.

4. The petitioner sent the telegrams apprehending that the alleged detenus were illegally detained by the police. In view of the submissions made by the learned Advocate General, we find that there is no illegal detention or confinement of the alleged detenus.

5. Accordingly the Writ Petition is dismissed.
